NLP for Senior Executives

Introduction

This two day 'Introduction to NLP' programme has been created for the Senior Executives of large and corporate businesses. It will provide an environment to explore the fundamentals of NLP within a forum of other business executives. The workshop promotes self-development and provides a useful tool set to complement a coaching ethos and leadership style. The result of the two days will be enhanced communication capability, more effective management in a variety of business situations and a solid understanding of NLP.
